personalities types.

B.L.L.K.

Beef, Lettuce,
Lettuce Wrap,
Kimchi

You really love lettuce, don't you? Lettuce this, lettuce that, you just can't let it go it seems. You let the whole world know you are health-conscious with your lettuce wrap, but in reality you actually hate eating lettuce. You like to add kimchi because it adds a little bit of excitement in your kind-of-mid life. It's flavorful thrill. You like to go out sometimes, but only once a month.

B.L.L.F.

Beef, Lettuce,
Lettuce Wrap,
Fried Egg

You are efficient with your resources. No time for an actual bun, so you go for the next best thing. You are dependable and on-time, but sometimes slip up because you forget where you put your phone and then go searching all over for it, only to realize it was in your back pocket the entire time. When people walk into your room, they give you a side-eye.

B.L.B.B.

Beef, Lettuce,
Brioche Bun,
Bacon Bits

You indulgent little munchkin. Beef and bacon. On a brioche bun. Wow, you really do treat yourself out nicely once in a while, don't you?

B.L.B.C.

Beef, Lettuce,
Brioche Bun,
Cherry Tomato

You crave a good balance. You're quite risk-adverse, enjoying things that are typical, but still very yummy. Sometimes you wish that you could go a little bit off the wall, but you have tamed yourself well. You like a good planner to organize your thoughts, your day, and your life. You have a good thing going for you.

B.P.S.W.

Beef, Pickles,
Sourdough Bread,
Wasabi

YOU SOUR FREAK! Your taste in things make people pucker your lips, squint their eyes, and furrow their eyebrows. At times, you even make people cringe because they can't stand you. You should probably go see a physical therapist to get your tastebuds in check.

B.P.S.M.

Beef, Pickles,
Sourdough Bread,
More Pickles

Dang, you are a pickle fiend. You are obsessed. When you get obsessed with something, you will not stop. You will scavenge through YouTube videos, learn about everything you can on the Internet, and talk to anyone you know about this obsession. Besides pickles, you are obsessed with Taylor Swift, Moonbeam Ice Cream Cookie, and matcha.

B.P.D.S.

Beef, Pickles,
Donut Bun,
Sour Patch Kids

Sweet and sour, nasty and nice. You are one odd freakball. Some may love that, while others are disgusted by you. However, you proudly own the facts of your existence and your preferences. You don't let anyone put you down with their judgments. Instead you flip the switch, and you judge everyone about their weird culinary likings.

B.P.D.C.

Beef, Pickles,
Donut Bun,
Chili Oil

Spicy, sour, sweet, savory. You like to have it all. You can't be tied down to a flavor, so you merge all the flavors together in one. Some may call you a mad scientist, but you like to call yourself an innovator that excites.

T.T.P.C.

Tofu, Tomato,
Potato Bun,
Corn

You're the nice friend that everyone likes having around. You're full of tea to spill, but it's always good tea. Someone recently did something kind for someone. A friend got someone a thoughtful birthday present. You offered to host a housewarming party. You love to share joy and kindness in this world.

T.T.P.T.

Tofu, Tomato,
Potato Bun,
Tortilla Chips

You're a little bit rough on the edges.
Your room is a bit of a mess, clothes are lying around and you seem to always be running out of underwear.
You say what's on your mind and don't give two flying tortilla chips about what other people think.

T.T.S.B.

Tofu, Tomato,
Sesame Seed Bun,
Balsamic Glaze

You're a traditionalist, doing things by the book. You're very classy and clean, and you expect other people to be like you, which is why you only have a couple close friends. You don't tend to open up your mind to new possibilities and ideas, instead closing yourself off to what is comfortable and already tasty.

T.T.S.S.

Tofu, Tomato,
Sesame Seed Bun,
Scrambled Eggs

Your heart is in the right place,
stuffed between a sesame seed bun
and a warm coat of scrambled eggs and tomato. You give off the most wholesome vibes, kind and thoughtful, yet still carrying a firmness in your opinions and values.

T.S.W.M.

Tofu, Spinach,
Whole Wheat
Bread, Mayo

People like to describe you as someone with a wacky and fun personality. They may think you're a little too quirky and weird for them though. Your favorite forms of expression are making paintings with your hands coated in paint, and you enjoy playing with legos. Your mom never liked to cook for you because you always had a picky palette.

T.S.W.A.

Tofu, Spinach,
Whole Wheat
Bread, Apple Slices

You bring a refreshing point of view to the conversation, offering insights that others haven't considered or sharing something that might steer the group to a new direction. You have an adaptable brain, ready at a moment's notice to solve whatever problems come your way. You do however break down easily when someone says your ideas suck.

T.S.C.H.

Tofu, Spinach,
Croissant Bun,
Honey

People find you comforting, but also a little unpredictable in the most charming way. You preach yoga in the morning, but end up quitting halfway to go get pastry at the local bakery shop. Sweetness is your theme for life.

T.S.C.R.

Tofu, Spinach,
Croissant Bun,
Roasted Nuts

You have a way with words and wit.
Nuts and spinach help with your brain development, so people always come to you for answers and assistance.
You're dependable and reliable, sometimes to a fault when people are constantly asking you for help.
